From Saturday April 7. to Tuesday April 10. 1744.

St. James's, April 10.

THE following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentry and Clergy of the County of Worceſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Coventry, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, accompanied by the Lord Biſhop of Worceſter, and by the Right Hon. the Lord Abergavenny, the Lord Sandys, the Lord Dudley, the Lord Deerhurſt, Sir John Ruſhout, Bart. the Hon. Thomas Winnington, Eſq; and others, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentry and Clergy of the County of Worceſter, aſſembled at the Aſſize held for the ſaid County, on the 24th Day of March, 1743.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentry and Clergy of the County of Worceſter, having, from your Majeſty's Authority, undoubted Information of the Heir of the Pretender to your Crowns being received into the French Dominions, and that Preparations are made there for an Invaſion of theſe Kingdoms, beg Leave to join the common Voice of your People, in declaring our Reſentment and Abhorrence of this high Indignity.

It is a ſmall Thing to aſſure your Majeſty of our Readineſs to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in your Defence, as they have ſo long and happily been preſerved by you, and muſt owe all their future Value to the Security of the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe. Nor could we reaſonably doubt, but the moſt unanimous and warm Zeal would be excited in the Breaſts of all true Britons, by a juſt Concern for our Religion and Liberties, when we are threatned with the moſt dreadful Evil in the World to the Britiſh Nation, a Popiſh Pretender, introduced and impoſed upon it by the Power of France.

We moſt humbly and joyfully congratulate your Majeſty on the Glory of your Arms hitherto both by Sea and Land: And we truſt, that the Almighty, in his Juſtice, will enable you to go on, till you have exemplarily chaſtiſed the Inſolence of your faithleſs Enemies, who openly throw off all Regard to Treaties and Engagements, and violate the moſt ſacred Laws of Nature and of Nations.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Devon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir William Courtenay, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by Sir Richard Banfield, Bart. William Sydendham, Eſq; and others, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Devon, aſſembled at the Aſſizes holden at the Caſtle of Exon, in and for the ſaid County, on Tueſday the 13th Day of March, 1743.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE inſolent Attempts lately made by a neighbouring Power, in order to introduce a popiſh Pretender to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, juſtly fill the Hearts of all your Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects with the greateſt Reſentment and Indignation.

We therefore, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Devon, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unalterable Fidelity, and that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, ſupport and defend your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Royal Family; and will ſteadily and reſolutely oppoſe any Deſigns whatſoever that ſhall be formed for the Subverſion of the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State.

The following Addreſs of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Honiton, in the County of Devon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. Sir William Yonge, Bart. and Henry Reginald Courtenay, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting : Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Borough of Honiton, in the County of Devon.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to expreſs our hearty Deteſtation of the pernicious Deſigns of our inveterate Enemies in Favour of a popiſh and abjured Pretender, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and illuſtrious Family.

We cannot, without the utmoſt Horror, reflect on the fatal Calamities which would have befallen us, if the Schemes of our Enemies had prevailed. Inſtead of our Religion, Liberties, and admirable Conſtitution of Government, which have flouriſhed in their full Spirit and Extent under your Majeſty's auſpicious Protection, Popiſh Tyranny and Arbitrary Power would have been eſtabliſhed and exerciſed with relentleſs Rigour; and inſtead of that Power, Dignity, and Independence, which Great Britain hath enjoyed under your Majeſty's glorious Adminiſtration, Ruin, Infamy, and Subjection to a French Yoke, and all the Miſeries to which a conquered and enſlaved People are ſubject, would have ſucceeded, and been entailed upon us.

We are thoroughly ſenſible, that the very Being of our Conſtitution, and Liberties, and every Thing that is dear and valuable to us, do abſolutely and inſeparably depend on the Stability of the Crown on your Majeſty and your Royal Houſe; and we are engaged by every Tie of Gratitude and Duty, and by every Motive of Intereſt and Affection, heartily to unite in a vigorous Defence and Support of that happy Eſtabliſhment; and we ſhall be always ready, with the greateſt Ardour, to run the utmoſt Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, in ſo juſt, important, and glorious a Cauſe.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baillies, Common-Council, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Dumbarton, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. Major General Campbell, and Major J. Campbell, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Baillies, Common-Council and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Dumbarton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Provoſt, Baillies, Common Council, and Burgeſſes of your ancient and loyal Burgh of Dumbarton, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence at this Time, when your Majeſty's Dominions are threatned with an Invaſion by an arbitrary Power, in favour of a popiſh Pretender, and to declare our loyal and dutiful Allegiance to your Majeſty, and firm Attachment to your Royal Proteſtant Family.

An Attempt, formed againſt your Majeſty's Government by the Enemies of Peace and Quiet, muſt unite and engage all your Subjects in the Defence of your ſacred Perſon and Crown, and the Liberties and Religion we enjoy under your Majeſty's Adminiſtration, and prevent the fatal Deſign of our Enemies to enſlave our native Country, by the Treachery and Rebellion of your Subjects.

We moſt humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will exert our utmoſt Endeavours, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, to defend and ſecure your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, the Liberty, Religion and Independency of our Country, and the Succeſſion of the Crown to your Royal Family.

May the God of Mercy, who has ſo often miraculouſly delivered our Church and Nation from popiſh Tyranny and arbitrary Power, direct and proſper all your Councels and Undertakings for the Security of your Perſon, Defence of your Kingdoms, and Preſervation of the Religion and Liberty of this Nation.

Signed in Preſence and by Appointment of Council.

John Campbell, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Dean of Guild, Baillies, Treaſurer and Commons of the ancient City of St. Andrews, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Honourable Thomas Leſlie, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Dean of Guild, Baillies, Treaſurer and Commons of the ancient City of St. Andrews, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

YOUR Majeſty having received undoubted Intelligence of the Preparations which are making in France to invade this Kingdom, in Concert with diſaffected Perſons in Britain, in Favours of a popiſh Pretender, we beg Leave, on this important Occaſion, with Hearts full of Zeal and Loyalty to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Royal Family, to aſſure your Majeſty of our utter Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſuch an inſolent and wicked Undertaking.

The bold Deſigns of the Court of France, whoſe Ambition ſeems to be the only Rule of its Conduct, and whoſe Power is the more formidable, that it is, at all Times, under the abſolute and ſole Direction of an arbitrary Maſter, whom no Treaties or publick Faith could ever bind, call loudly, on all your Majeſty's Subjects, to exert themſelves in the Common Cauſe of Liberty, and to defend their Civil and Sacred Rights; all which they enjoy, beyond other Nations, under the mildeſt and beſt Conſtitution of Civil Government, which ever any People were bleſſed with.

Permit us then, Moſt gracious Sovereign, with all Humility, to expreſs our firm and ſteady Reſolution to ſtand by your Majeſty with our Lives and Fortunes, and to exert ourſelves, in our ſeveral Capacities, to the outmoſt of our Power, in the Defence of the Proteſtant Religion, as by Law eſtabliſhed, and in the Defence of thoſe valuable Rights and Privileges, which, at the laſt glorious Revolution, were ſettled and aſcertained to us by the Claim of Right, and which can only be rendered ſure to our Poſterity, by a Proteſtant Succeſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms, in your Majeſty's Royal Family.

That it may pleaſe the Divine Majeſty to bleſs your Arms by Sea and Land with Succeſs, and to defeat all Attempts of Enemies to diſturb the Peace and Tranquility, which we with thankful Hearts enjoy, under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt Faithful and Dutiful, Loyal Subjects and Servants.

Signed by Appointment of the Council at St. Andrews, the 14th of March 1744, by

Will. Douglas, Provoſt.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrats and Council of the Burgh of Linlithgow, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Mackye, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Town of Linlithgow.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Magiſtrats and Council of the Burgh of Linlithgow, the Reſidence of your Majeſty's Royal Anceſtors the Kings of Scotland, do take this Opportunity, when the Kingdom is threatned with a Foreign Invaſion, to aſſure your Majeſty of the Loyalty of our Hearts, of our ſincere Regard to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and our conſtant Adherence to the preſent happy Eſtabliſhment in your Royal Family, upon the Preſervation of which the Enjoyment of our Laws and Liberties does depend.

Your Majeſty's known Care and Diligence in every Thing that concerns the Happineſs of your People, give us the beſt Hopes of ſeeing the wicked Councils of your Enemies defeated; but if they yet ſhould be ſo fooliſh as to attempt an Invaſion, in Favours of a Popiſh Pretender, allow us to aſſure your Majeſty of our utmoſt Endeavours to defeat ſo deſperate a Deſign, and defend your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, and your undoubted Right to the Crown of theſe Realms.

Signed in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Council,

John Buckney, Provoſt.

Linlithgow,

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Baillies and Council of the Borough of Anſtruther-Eaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and moſt loyal Subjects, the Baillies and Council of Anſtruther-Eaſter, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of a Deſign to invade your Dominions; and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, Support, Maintain and Defend your ſacred Perſon and Government, and the Succeſſion in the Royal Family, againſt a popiſh Pretender, or any who ſhall endeavour to invade your Realms.

That your Majeſty may have a long and proſperous Reign to ſupport our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and that your Royal Progeny may continue the Succeſſion to lateſt Poſterity, is the earneſt Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt loyal, and moſt faithful Subjects.

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, and Town-Council of the Borough of Anſtruther-Weſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Anſtruther-Weſter, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, with Hearts full of Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, that we cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Surprize and Concern at the audacious Attempts of a popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown and Kingdoms, threatning, by an Invaſion, the Subverſion of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and to make our native Country a Scene of Blood.

Permit us therefore, Great Sir, to declare our loyal and ſincere Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, under which we enjoy ſuch valuable Bleſſings and Privileges; and ſhall therefore, with ſtedfaſt and loyal Reſolutions, to the utmoſt of our Power, aſſert your Majeſty's undoubted Title to the Throne of theſe Realms, againſt all who ſhall dare pretend to oppoſe it.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal, and faithful Subjects.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Borough of Forreſs, in the County of Elgin and Forreſs.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Town of Forreſs, aſſembled in Council, underſtanding by your Majeſty's Meſſage to Parliament, that you have undoubted Intelligence of the French King's attempting to make an Invaſion on your Majeſty's Dominions, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, in order to ſubvert our Religion, Laws and Liberties, the deareſt Bleſſings of a free People, we cannot, without Horror and Reſentment, look on the daring Inſolence of the French Fleet, in hovering on our Coaſts, and their Hopes of finding diſaffected Perſons to join them in effectuating their bad Purpoſes: We therefore beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we abhor all ſuch wicked Deſigns, and ſhall be ready, on all Occaſions, to teſtify our Loyalty and Zeal for your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, with our Lives and Fortunes; that your Majeſty may live long to Reign over theſe your Dominions, and to maintain the Laws, Liberties and Religion thereof, in Oppoſition to all your Majeſty's Enemies either Abroad or at Home, is the hearty Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt obedient, moſt dutiful, and moſt loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of the Burgh of Forreſs in Council aſſembled.

Sign'd at our Deſire, by our Preſes, the 17th Day of March 1744, and ordered by Act of Council to be preſented to your Majeſty by Alexander Brodie, of Brodie, Eſq; our Provoſt, ſerving his Country in Parliament.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the Borough of Kilrinnie, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Marqueſs of Tweeddale, his Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for North-Britain: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Council of Kilrinnie, in Council aſſembled, beg Leave, with profound Regard, to approach your Throne, to declare our Abhorrence at a wicked and daring Deſign, form'd by the reſtleſs Enemies of your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, in attempting to invade theſe your Majeſty's Dominions, prompted thereto, and ſupported therein, by the tyrannical Power of France, the common Diſturber of the Peace and Tranquility of Europe. And as we think it our Duty, as well as Honour and Intereſt, to defend, at the Hazard of All that is dear to us, your Majeſty's moſt ſacred Perſon and Government, as the firmeſt Bulwark of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, we therefore, with moſt ſincere Reſolution, do engage, that we ſhall, with our Lives and Fortunes, oppoſe all the deteſtable Efforts

Efforts of a popiſh Pretender to your Throne, and every Attempt made to diſturb the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Line, which we pray, may flouriſh to perpetuity.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, moſt loyal, and moſt faithful Subjects.

Sign'd in Preſence, and by Appointment of the Council, Ja. Ward, Chief Magiſtrate.

Kilrinnie, March 26, 1744.

The following Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of York, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Archbiſhop of York, attended by the Lord Biſhop of Bangor, one of the Prebends, and others, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Archbiſhop, and Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of York, beg Leave to expreſs our hearty Concurrence with thoſe general Teſtimonies of a ſincere and warm Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, which have proceeded from every Part of your Kingdom.

It was natural to expect, from the Experience the Nation has had of the Wiſdom, and Proſperity, and Indulgence of your Majeſty's Government, that any Attempt upon the Tranquility of it ſhould be received, as it has been, with the higheſt Indignation by all your Subjects; and, as it has pleaſed God to diſappoint, for the preſent, the bold and ill-concerted Deſigns of our perfidious and infatuated Enemies, we humbly accept the Event from his good Providence, as an Omen, that every future Effort of their Counſels and their Arms, will perpetuate the Stability of that Government which they vainly and fooliſhly attempt to ſhake, and demonſtrate to all Europe, that what-ever Home-Diviſions are ſtirring among the Britiſh People, there is, at all Junctures, a real, and warm, and innate Union in their Hearts, which never fails to exert itſelf againſt the Power of France, and the Machinations of Popery.

It is Wiſdom to be alarmed at Danger, and make Proviſion againſt impending Miſchief, and this Prudence has been ſeaſonably put in Practice, but unmix'd with any Fear of thoſe Enemies, which we have ſo often humbled. Our Safety and Repoſe, under Divine Providence, is in the Goodneſs, and Wiſdom, and Valour of your Majeſty; and we have only to beg of God, that at this critical Juncture, more eſpecially, he would watch over your ſacred Perſon, and preſerve to us the invaluable Life of a Prince, whom we honour, and revere, and obey, as our dread Sovereign, and love, as our common Parent. Given under our common Seal, this Second Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-four.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the Eaſt Riding of the County of York, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Irwin, accompanied by Sir William St. Quintin, Bart. Sir James Pennington, Bart. and ſeveral other Gentlemen of the County, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the Eaſt Riding of the County of York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, cannot delay, in this critical Conjuncture, to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Allegiance, and that the Dangers with which our Religion, our Liberty and Properties are threatened, make us more ſenſible of the full Enjoyment of them, by which we are bleſs'd under your Majeſty's mild and juſt Government.

We congratulate your Majeſty, that this perfidious Attempt will endear you to every Breaſt in Europe that loves her Liberty: France confeſs'd you the Bulwark of it at Dettingen, when her devoted Squadrons aim'd at your illuſtrious Head; and we truſt, that Providence, which crown'd you with Victory on that glorious Day, will enable you to protect your Realms from Inſult, and to penetrate the dark Treaſon by which this faithleſs Power now ſeeks to undermine your Throne.

As the Diſcovery of the Deſign to invade this Nation has made Loyalty to your Majeſty the Voice of the People, and ſilenc'd all Diſtinctions among us, but of Friends to France or Friends to Britain, we hope, that neither thoſe deluded Subjects of your Majeſty, who have ſold themſelves to France to aſſiſt her to ravage and enſlave their Country, nor France, upon their Encouragement, will dare to erect a hoſtile Standard here: But in all Events we promiſe religiouſly to defend your ſacred Perſon and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, in Defiance of Danger, and to the utmoſt of our Power; to be vigilant in our Stations to maintain the publick Peace; and to contribute willingly to ſupport your Majeſty in the Engagements and Meaſures which your Majeſty in Parliament ſhall think proper.

That your avow'd and ſecret Enemies may ever fall before you ; that your Reign may be long and happy ; and that your Deſcendants, copying your great Example, may bleſs our lateſt Poſterity, is the conſtant Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Principal Traders, and Freemen of the City of Coventry, has been preſented to his Majeſty by William Grove, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Principal Traders, and Freemen of the City of Coventry.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Principal Traders, and Freemen of this City, beg Leave, with the reſt of your faithful Subjects of this Kingdom, humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, of our Zeal and Affection for your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government, upon this important Occaſion.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, we have the utmoſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the vain, inſolent and preſumptuous Attempts of the common Enemy of this Kingdom, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, as well as all his Adherents both at Home and Abroad.

We are highly ſenſible of the many and invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; and we aſſure your Majeſty, that we will, upon the preſent, and upon all future Occaſions, ſtand by and ſupport your Majeſty, and the Succeſſion in your illuſtrious Houſe, at the Expence and Hazard of all that is valuable and dear to us.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Burrough of Pembroke, in the County of Pembroke, has been preſented to his Majeſty by William Owen, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town and Burrough of Pembroke, in the County of Pembroke.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Burrough of Pembroke, beg Leave to preſent this our moſt humble Addreſs to your Majeſty upon the preſent Situation of Affairs, which we are unfeignedly deſirous may be expreſſive of the greateſt Loyalty, and the ſtricteſt Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and Government, in which Particular, we would not come behind the moſt forward of our Fellow Subjects.

It is therefore, with the utmoſt Indignation, we find our Religion, Laws and Liberties, ſtruck at by the pernicious Deſigns of our Enemies to invade your Majeſty's Dominions in favour of a Popiſh Pretender; but we truſt, that by the unanimous Concurrence of all your faithful Subjects, and by your Majeſty's paternal Care and Vigilance, under the Guidance and Protection of Heaven, all their Efforts will prove abortive, and their dark Contrivances and Machinations will be totally fruſtrated.

We, on our part, conformable to our Duty and Allegiance, out of a due Senſe of the many and valuable Bleſſings we poſſeſs under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, heartily declare, that we will venture our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of the ſame, and towards ſupporting our preſent happy Conſtitution, againſt any Pretender or Invader whatſoever, that ſhould be ſo bold as to attempt its Subverſion.

We add our ſincereſt Wiſhes, that your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and proſperous, and that there may be never wanting, one deſcended from your Majeſty, to ſit upon the Throne of theſe Realms; that ſo our preſent Bleſſings, in Church and State, may be tranſmitted down to lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our Common Seal, this Twenty Second Day of March, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty Three.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Carnarvon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by William Bodvell, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, and Sir Thomas Wynn, Bart. being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Carnarvon, aſſembled at the Great Seſſion held for that County, on Tueſday the 27th Day of March, 1744.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Carnarvon, beg Leave to tender tender our moſt ſincere Acknowledgments of the unbounded Bleſſings we enjoy under your moſt auſpicious and happy Reign, and at the ſame Time to give this publick Teſtimony of the grateful and loyal Sentiments which inſpire our Breaſts upon this Survey and Remembrance of our Happineſs.

The Returns of Duty which we owe for the Enjoyment of ſo great a Felicity, call upon us, at this critical Juncture, (which threatens us and theſe Kingdoms with a foreign Invaſion) to give your Majeſty the utmoſt Aſſurance of our hearty Zeal and ſtedfaſt Attachment to your Perſon and Government; that we will chearfully contribute all that is dear to, us towards the Support of your Royal Perſon and illuſtrious Houſe, and at the ſame Time ready to ſupport the one with our Fortunes, protect the other with our Lives, and ſacrifice every thing that is valuable to us in the Defence of them, our Religion and Liberties, againſt all Invaders whatſoever; and we truſt your Majeſty will more eaſily credit theſe our Proteſtations of Affection and Fidelity, when we crave Leave to aſſure your Majeſty (which may be ſomething uncommon with our Fellow Subjects) that there is not one Nonjuror, or profeſs'd Papiſt in the whole County.

Upon this alarming Occaſion we alſo think it our Duty, to theſe Aſſurances to add our fervent and frequent Prayers, that the Divine Providence may always defend your Royal Perſon and Family from all Dangers, and enable you to confound the Malice, as well as diſappoint the Deſigns of your Enemies both at Home and Abroad, and preſerve to us and theſe Kingdoms, a Prince and a Proteſtant of the Brunſwick Line upon the Throne to Ages ſtill unborn.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, the Right Hon. the Recorder, the Deputy Recorder, Juſtices of the Peace, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes, Clergy, Gentry, and others, Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Hon. George Compton, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, the Right Hon. the Recorder, the Deputy Recorder, Juſtices of the Peace, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes, Clergy, Gentry, and others, Inhabitants of the Town of Northampton.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

SInce we are under all the Obligations of Duty and Gratitude to your Majeſty, under whom, next to Heaven, we are bleſſed in the full Enjoyment of our Religion, Liberty and Properties, and have the happy Proſpect of their being continued to our Poſterity by your Royal Iſſue, we cannot, without the greateſt Diſdain and Abhorrence, reflect on the Perfidy of the common Enemy, the French King, whoſe Inſolence has encouraged him to form a Deſign of invading theſe Realms, and whoſe little Regard to the moſt ſolemn Treaties, has induced him to declare War againſt your Majeſty; we moſt humbly and heartily congratulate the Unanimity that appears in the Wiſhes and Reſolutions of your People, in their ſeveral Stations, to reſent this high Indignity and Injuſtice; from hence we are perſwaded, Great Sir, that your Subjects do ſtill inherit a Jealouſy of the Engliſh Honour, equal to that of their Anceſtors, the Effects of whoſe Courage France has often heretofore, at it has alſo very lately, felt.

Whenever your Majeſty's great Wiſdom ſhall call upon us, we will, beſides the daily Tribute of our Prayers for your Majeſty's long and happy Reign over us, be ready to contribute, to the utmoſt of our Abilities, to your Majeſty's Honour and Safety, who for us have expoſed your ſacred Perſon to the utmoſt Dangers, whoſe Intereſt is inſeparable from that of your Subjects, and whoſe peculiar Prerogative it is to have no other Aim but to procure the Welfare of your People, and by their Aſſiſtance to influence the Happineſs of Europe.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Glouceſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Gage, and John Martin, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, accompanied by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Deerhurſt, General Read, and others, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Mancheſter, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Glouceſter.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, being truly ſenſible that the Security of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, does, under God, depend upon our having a Proteſtant Prince upon the Throne, and upon the Succeſſion to theſe Kingdoms being ſo happily eſtabliſhed in your Royal Family, cannot omit this Opportunity of joining with the reſt of your faithful Subjects, in declaring our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the Attempt that hath been form'd by the French Power to invade theſe your Kingdoms, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender to your Throne. And we do, with the greateſt Sincerity, aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall be ready on this and all other Occaſions, to aſſiſt your your Majeſty, to the utmoſt of our Power, in the Defence of your ſacred Perſon and Government. And as we hope the Unanimity of your faithful Subjects, which hath ſo remarkably appeared at this Juncture, will ever deter the Enemies of our Church and Nation from ſo bold and daring an Attempt, we beg Leave further to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, on our Part, with the warmeſt Zeal, continue to maintain thoſe Principles of Loyalty and Affection which will moſt effectually preſerve that Unanimity, diſcourage your Enemies, and beſt conduce to make your Majeſty's Reign, and that of your Succeſſors, eaſy, happy, and glorious.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affix'd our Common Seal this 31ſt Day of March 1744.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town of Rye, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir John Norris, Knt. and Philips Gybbon, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of your ancient Town of Rye, beg Leave to join our Fellow Subjects in a publick Acknowledgment of the Happineſs we enjoy under a Prince whoſe Government is by the Liberty of his People founded in their Hearts.

We congratulate your Majeſty on the Diſcovery of the Perfidy of France, in attempting an Invaſion of your Dominions in Time of Peace, and on the Succeſs your Majeſty hath already met with in rendering that Attempt abortive.

In this Part of your Dominions theſe Invaders were lately convinced of the Raſhneſs of their Undertaking, and deſerted their unfiniſh'd Enterprize, terrify'd by the Approach of your Royal Navy, under Apprehenſion of receiving the Chaſtiſement due to their Inſolence, from which only Night and Tempeſt gave them Opportunity to eſcape. We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, of our Reſolution to unite, with our Fellow Subjects, in defending your ſacred Perſon and Family, from all future Attempts that may be made againſt you, with a Firmneſs becoming the Inhabitants of a free Nation.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Town of Rye, the 4th Day of April 1744.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bridge-Maſters and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Maidenhead, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Peniſton Powney, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Berks, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bridge-Maſters and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Maidenhead, in the County of Berks.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bridge-Maſters and Burgeſſes of your ancient Corporation of Maidenhead, beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence of the Invaſion intended in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, by a perfidious Nation, who finding their deluded Hopes and ſucceſsleſs Endeavours fruſtrated by the concurrent Teſtimonies of the unanimous Affections of your faithful People, ſtill perſiſt in their Intentions to diſturb the Tranquility of Europe, by declaring War againſt your Majeſty; but we doubt not they will find you ſo ſupported by the Zeal of your Subjects at Home, and ſo aſſiſted by your Alliances Abroad, that, through the Protection of the Almighty in ſo juſt a Cauſe, your Arms will be crowned with an uninterrupted Series of Victories, till the Triumphs of War are ſucceeded by the Bleſſings of Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, the Second Day of April, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Forty Four.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newbury, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Peniſton Powney, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the County of Berks, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Newbury, in the County of Berks.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, looking on every Attempt againſt your ſacred Perſon and Government, as the moſt dangerous Attack of both our Religious and Civil Rights, cannot but expreſs our utmoſt Scorn and Deteſtation of the daring Inſolence of a People, whoſe Conſciences, as well as Perſons, being long ſince ſunk into a State of the moſt abject Slavery, could be wrought upon, either by the Blindneſs of Superſtition, or by an impotent Envy of our happier Condition, to invade a Brave and Free Nation, animated with the true Spirit of Liberty; and to hope, that any amongſt us, whilſt in the full Enjoyment of that ineſtimable Bleſſing, under your moſt auſpicious Government, could be ſo inſenſible of their preſent Happineſs, Happineſs, as in any Manner to ſecond or countenance their deſperate and infamous Attempts, to reduce and debaſe us to their own wretched Circumſtances.

In the Defence of your ſacred Perſon and Government, and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion of the Crown in your Royal Houſe, againſt theſe and all other the like wicked Enterprizes, we beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty of our conſtant Readineſs to appear amongſt the Foremoſt of our Fellow Subjects, being firmly perſuaded, that on the Continuance of theſe Bleſſings, doth, under God, depend our only Security for the Enjoyment of our holy Religion, Laws, Liberties, and Properties, and tranſmitting the ſame to our Poſterity.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough of Newbury, the Seventeenth Day of March, in the Seventeenth Year of your Majeſty's Regin, and in the Year of our Lord 1743.

The young Princeſs of Zerbſt had been ill of a Feveriſh Diſorder, and the Phyſicians were at firſt apprehenſive of the Small Pox; but in two or three Days all Symptoms of that Kind went off, and her Highneſs was much better. Lord Tyrawley, his Britannick Majeſty's Ambaſſador Extraordinary to the Imperial Court of Ruſſia, proceeded from Konigsberg, the 8th Inſtant, on his Journey hither, and it is ſuppoſed he is arrived by this Time in Riga, where Preparations are made, by her Imperial Majeſty's Order, for the Reception of his Excellency, with all Diſtinction ſuitable to the Dignity of his Character.

Other Letters mention the Magiſtrates of Nice having ſent the Keys of their Town to Don Philip, and that the firſt Poſt the King of Sardinia ſeem'd to intend to maintain againſt the French and Spaniards, was Montalbo. Letters from Rome of the 24th paſt bring Advice of their Sicilian Majeſties having left Naples, the Queen being retired to Gaeta, and the King gone to put himſelf at the Head of his Troops, which, according to other Advices, did actually join thoſe of M. de Gages at Chietti, behind the Peſcaro, upon the 24th paſt.

Whitehall, April 10.

A Meſſenger arrived laſt Night with Diſpatches from Admiral Matthews, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, of the 17th paſt from Mahon Harbour, giving an Account, that the Damages ſuſtained by his Majeſty's Fleet under his Command, as well in the late Engagement with the French and Spaniards, as in the ſubſequent Storms, being repaired, and the Ships fitted for the Sea, he propoſed to ſail again from thence the Day following.

Thoſe Letters likewiſe bring Advice, that the Admiral had thought himſelf obliged to ſuſpend Vice-Admiral Leſtock, in Regard to his Conduct in the late Action, from all farther Authority in his Majeſty's Fleet, till the King's Pleaſure ſhould be known, and that he had ordered the ſaid Vice-Admiral to return Home immediately on board his Majeſty's Ship the Salisbury.
